

Draft program of the Forestry Work camp 2018 in the Antonin Forest District

8th-9th of July arrival of the participants

Monday 9th of July

10.00 am Conference:

Presentations:

- The State Forests in Poland and the Regional Directorate of the State Forests in Poznań
- The Antonin Forest District
- Presentations of the participants about forestry in their countries

Visiting to the office of the Antonin Forest District

19.00 pm – Welcome reception

Tuesday the 10th

9.00 am – Forest Fire Protection, Nature Protection in the Antonin Forest District – excursion to the nature reserve and Nature 2000 sites, Water retention program, Promotional Forest „Rychtalskie Forest”, education and science activity

Wednesday the 11th

Silviculture and tree nursery. Excursion to the Przedborów Forest District tree nursery, moth catching evening.

Thursday the 12th

WOOD: planning of wood harvesting, wood marketing, contracting of work, Visit to the sawmill or furniture factory

Friday the 13th

4.00 am – 7.00 am Game counting and birdwatching

10.00 am - Game management and hunting, Case studies: Black Stork protection program, Red deer management, Wolves coming back, African Swine Disease development in Poland and influence on economy and wild boar population

Saturday the 14th

Sightseeing of Poznan, Old town, Poznan University of Life Sciences

Sunday 15th –Day OFF

Monday the 16th

Sightseeing of the Forest Culture Centre in Gołuchów: museum of forestry, animal demonstration garden with European bison

Tuesday the 17th

Excursion to the Jarocin Forest District – tree nursery facilities, and the Czeszewo educational forestry center

Wednesday the 18th

Excursion to the Syców Forest District – visiting the arboretum

Thursday the 19th

Excursion to the Krotoszyn Forest District – oak stands, oak logs selection and wood auction, nature reserve

Friday the 20th

Summarizing of the work camp and departure